Terms and Conditions

Kheti Kranti - rent and rent out farm equipment

Effective date: 13 October 2026 | Last updated: 13 October 2026

These Terms and Conditions ("Terms") explain the rules for using the Kheti Kranti website, in Hindi and English. By creating an account, listing equipment, booking equipment or otherwise using the website, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, please do not use the website.

In short
Kheti Kranti only connects farmers who want to rent equipment with owners who have it. The rental deal is between the owner and the hirer. Give true information and real photos, inspect the machine, agree the price before you book, pay and return as agreed, and stay safe.

1. What Kheti Kranti is

Kheti Kranti is an online platform where farmers rent the farm equipment they need (hirers) and rent out equipment they are not using (owners). We provide the website and tools for listing, searching, contacting and booking. We do not own the equipment, we are not a party to any rental deal between users, and we do not provide transport, insurance or drivers.

2. Eligibility and your account

- You must be at least 18 years old and able to enter into a legal agreement.
- The information you give us (such as your name, mobile number and location) must be true and kept up to date.
- You are responsible for everything done through your account. Keep your login details and one-time passwords private, and tell us at once if you think someone else is using your account.
- Each person should have only one account.

3. Renting out equipment (owners)

- You may list only equipment that you own or have the right to rent out.
- Fill in the listing honestly and completely: category, item or company name, model where needed, price per hour or per day, driver option, extra details, mobile number and location.
- Add at least one clear photo of your own equipment, taken with your camera or chosen from your gallery. Do not use photos of other people's machines or misleading pictures.
- The price is set by you. Any price suggestion shown on the website is only guidance and is not a promise of what you will earn.
- Equipment must be in safe working condition. Tell hirers about any known fault.
- If you offer a driver, the driver must be competent and hold any licence the law requires. If your listing says With driver, the driver rent is included in your price. If it says With or without driver, state the extra driver amount.
- Keep your availability up to date. Mark equipment Out of stock when you cannot rent it out, and honour the bookings you have accepted.

4. Hiring equipment (hirers)

- Use the equipment only for lawful farming or related work, and only as agreed with the owner.
- Inspect the machine and agree on price, dates, fuel and any driver charges before you start.
- Use it with care, only through competent people, and do not sub-let or lend it to anyone else without the owner's permission.
- Return it on time and in the same condition, apart from normal wear.
- You are responsible for loss or damage during the rental, and for fuel, fines and other charges, unless you and the owner agree otherwise.

5. Bookings, prices and payments

A booking made through the website is an agreement between the hirer and the owner. Prices shown are set by owners. At present, payment is made by the hirer directly to the owner, and Kheti Kranti does not collect, hold or guarantee any payment. Please agree the full amount, including any driver charges, before the rental begins, and pay only after you receive the equipment. If we add online payments or charge any fee in the future, we will tell you on the website and update these Terms.

6. Cancellations and availability

- Owners and hirers should cancel as early as possible and inform each other.
- Refunds, advance amounts and compensation are to be settled between the owner and the hirer.
- Repeated cancellations, no-shows or marking equipment available when it is not may lead to a warning or suspension.

7. Safe operation of machinery

Farm machinery can cause serious injury. Users must follow safety rules, wear suitable clothing, keep children and bystanders away, and operate machines only if they are trained to do so. We do not check users, drivers, equipment or its condition, and we do not provide insurance. You are responsible for your own safety and for arranging any insurance you need.

8. Content you post

You keep ownership of the photos and text you upload. You give Kheti Kranti a free, non-exclusive right to store, show and process them on the website in order to run the service. You must have the right to post what you upload, and it must not be false, unlawful, offensive or copied from someone else. We may remove content that breaks these Terms.

9. What you must not do

- Post fake or misleading listings, prices, photos or reviews.
- Cheat, threaten or harass another user, or ask for money outside the agreed deal.
- Collect or misuse other people's mobile numbers or personal details, or send them spam.
- Use the website for anything illegal.
- Try to hack, overload or disrupt the website, or use bots or scrapers to copy it.
- Pretend to be someone else or create accounts to avoid a suspension.

10. No guarantees

The website is provided "as is". We do not promise that listings are accurate, that equipment will be available or in good condition, that any user will behave honestly, or that the website will always work without interruption or errors. Please check everything yourself before you rent or hand over your equipment.

11. Limits on our responsibility

As far as the law allows, Kheti Kranti is not responsible for loss, damage, injury, crop loss, delay or dispute arising from a deal between users, from the use of any equipment, or from the website being unavailable. Nothing in these Terms removes any responsibility that cannot be removed under Indian law. You agree to compensate us for any claim or loss caused by your breach of these Terms or your misuse of the website.

12. Suspension and ending

We may remove content, suspend or close an account, or limit access if we believe these Terms have been broken, the law requires it, or the safety of other users is at risk. You may stop using the website at any time and ask us to delete your account as described in our Privacy Policy.

13. Privacy

How we collect and use your information is explained in the Kheti Kranti Privacy Policy, which forms part of these Terms.

14. Our website and brand

The Kheti Kranti name, logo, design and text belong to Kheti Kranti. You may use the website for your own personal use, but you may not copy, sell or reuse it without our written permission.

15. Changes to these Terms

We may update these Terms or the website from time to time. We will change the "Last updated" date and, for important changes, tell you on the website. Using the website after a change means you accept the new Terms.

16. Governing law and disputes

These Terms are governed by the laws of India. If you have a problem, please contact us first so we can try to resolve it in a friendly way. Any dispute that cannot be settled will be subject to the courts at Begusarai, Bihar.
